

NORTH THAMES REGION NEWSLETTER

The Film & Video Institute

North Thames Region Annual Competition and the NT AGM will take place at Pinner Village Hall on Sunday 22 November. The closing date for entries is 12 September when they must be in the hands of Ken Mills, the competition officer.

The winning films and as many of the other entries as time allows will be shown on Sunday 22 November.

The AGM will take place at 2.15pm between the morning and afternoon film shows. More details on pages 6 and 7 and a nomination form for elections to Council is on page 10.

September-October 2009

CHAIRMAN'S CHAT

I am sure that everyone is tired of my continual cry about the need for more members on the North Thames Council but here I am again. By the time you read this news letter it will only be a couple of months away from the North Thames Annual Film Show and AGM. I therefore encourage you to get your films in to Ken Mills by 12 September. I also encourage you to look at the nomination form on page 10 and consider whether you would be prepared to stand for election to Council or whether there is someone you know who should be encouraged to do so. It is, after all your Council and it is detrimental to the organisation for the same people to go on and on ad infinitum. We need new blood with new ideas.

On a lighter note, I am very happy to announce the great success of all my films on DVD. They may not do well in competition but they are brilliant at keeping the birds away from the plum tree! The tree is bedecked with DVDs and looks very pretty as the DVDs sway in the breeze and get caught by the sunlight. However, best of all, the birds are afraid to land and so this year I have a nice crop of plums instead of just a pile of stones on the ground.

Speaking of the ground, I have spent many happy hours sitting on the floor trying to film a dog at nose level. The trouble is that he does not seem to understand that he is supposed to walk towards the camera. If I call him he gallops up which is not what I am hoping for. If anyone has tackled this problem successfully I should be grateful for advice.

Finally, as everyone seems to be in a panic about swine flu, can I encourage you to be prepared for it and in addition to your favourite comfort foods, also stock up on film footage that you can edit to your hearts content while you are house bound. I would hate you to be both sick and bored!

Television for Beginners.

By Peter Sampson

I'm setting up a training school for aspiring TV directors to teach them how to make fashionable TV programmes. There are only three things they need to learn.

The first is to ignore the script, because anything spoken will be inaudible anyway, swamped by background music that gives programmes a truly up-to-the-minute feel. Any old dribble of tinkling tuneless meanderings will do. I'll show them clips from the latest Little Dorrit production to show how it's done.

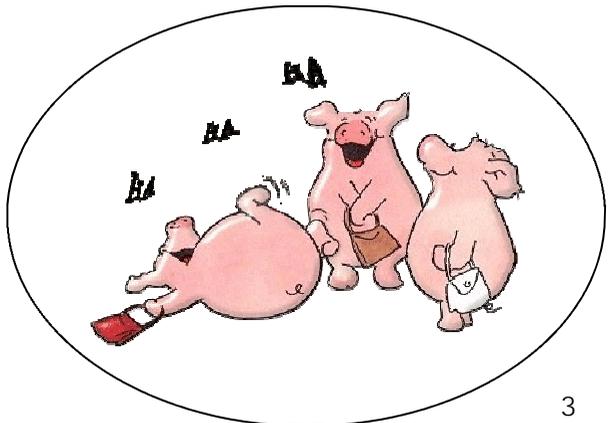

The second is that nobody over 35 is usually allowed in front of the camera. Above that age, if needed, people are to be shown as loveable grumps, like Morse and Meldrew, or comic grotesques, like Hyacinth Bucket.

Finally no picture should stay on the screen for longer than two seconds. Programmes, particularly documentaries on serious subjects, must dash hysterically from shot to shot to demonstrate the director's youthful energy. Students will be shown clips of archaic documentary performers like Kenneth Clark, Brian Horrocks, AJP Taylor and Jacob Bronowski to prove how ridiculously old-fashioned it is to think that viewers can follow an argument for longer than two seconds at a time.

Oh, just one thing more. Visuals. Lots of visuals. Without them, you have no studio cred whatsoever. If your newsreader, for instance, is to talk about the housing market, he or she must be backed by visuals of lots of tiny money-bags, each with a £ sign on the front, floating from a tiny bank to a tiny house and back again. Talk of the credit crunch is useless without a large red arrow pointing vertiginously downwards and a tiny cartoon family being squeezed in a giant pair of nutcrackers.

From The Editor

First, an apology for the reduced margin on page 10 of the last issue. It is what comes from trying to get a quart into a pint pot! I shall be more careful in future.

As you may remember, the newsletter is available in colour on the IAC web-site - www.theiac.org.uk/North Thames Region /newsletter. I am glad to say that I have now found out how to make it reader-friendly so take a few moments to have a look at it. It will be available on the web-site a week or two before it is delivered with the main magazine.

As the current newsletter editor I would like to encourage you to contribute to the content of the newsletter. Letters are welcome and so are reports on something that a club, a group of filmmakers or individual filmmakers are doing. They could all be of interest to the 250 or so members in the Region. This is your newsletter and your input can help to make it more interesting.

Eric Granshaw

A letter from Ken Mills following the discussion on editing techniques in the last issue of the NT Newsletter:

Just a comment on Mike Shaw's and Ned's points on editing I have to say that I'm saddened when I read these blanket condemnations of 40's and 50's films, as all that these folk remember of those decades. Sure there were probably a number of "B" movies with contrived and stilted acting, but do they really think that the old Ealing comedies like Lavender Hill Mob, Passport to Pimlico, Ladykillers, films like Ben Hur, Bridge over the River Kwai, Whiskey Galore, Rear Window, - I could go on - are stilted and contrived?. These are my memories of that period and I think they are films that will last a lot longer than some of today's "reality" offerings.

THE NTR 100 CLUB

The IAC North Thames Region members are a fun loving generous crowd of moviemakers, some are more fun loving and generous than others. These are the elite members of the Elite 100 Club.

The late Dr John Smart around the end of the last century founded the Club. It is registered with the local Council under the Small Lottery and Gambling act. The law allows only a hundred members.

Since it's start we have raised around £7000 and paid out the same amount in prize money. The proceeds from the 100 Club help to finance the North Thames Regional events and the purchase of equipment for use by the members. Our present equipment needs updating e.g. a new DVD HD recorder.

You can join any time. You do not have to wait until the end of the year. The cost of membership is £12 for a year giving 12 monthly entries, one pound a month or around three pence each day. The prizes are not vast but one win could repay your entry fee for the year plus a profit and any subsequent win that year is all profit.

It is a fun thing. Whenever a member wins, even the winners of the third prize, they are always delighted. A reward perhaps for the joy of giving, the knowledge that they are contributing to a good cause.

Are you a fun loving and generous member? Do you agree that the North Thames Region is well worth your support? Why not treat yourself and or a member of your family and become one of the elite. All you need to do is send me your details and a cheque and I will do the rest.

THE MOVIE FESTIVAL IS COMING TO PINNER !

by Aivar Kaulins, FACI

For several years, the North Thames Region of the IAC has been holding its AGM and Movie Festival in the Quality Hotel on the outskirts of Hatfield. A perfectly good venue, but regrettably let down by the quality of food served at lunch-time, even more so by the standard of service in the restaurant. Eventually, we all said "never again !"

Members of the NTR Council have made many enquiries in order to find a suitable replacement for next November's event, travelled many miles inspecting possible venues, only to be disappointed time and again for a variety of reasons, not least on grounds of cost.

Now, at last, we have found and booked a suitable place. This is the Pinner Village Hall, Chapel Lane Car Park, Pinner, Middlesex. For those travelling with the aid of sat-navs, the post code is HA5 1AB.

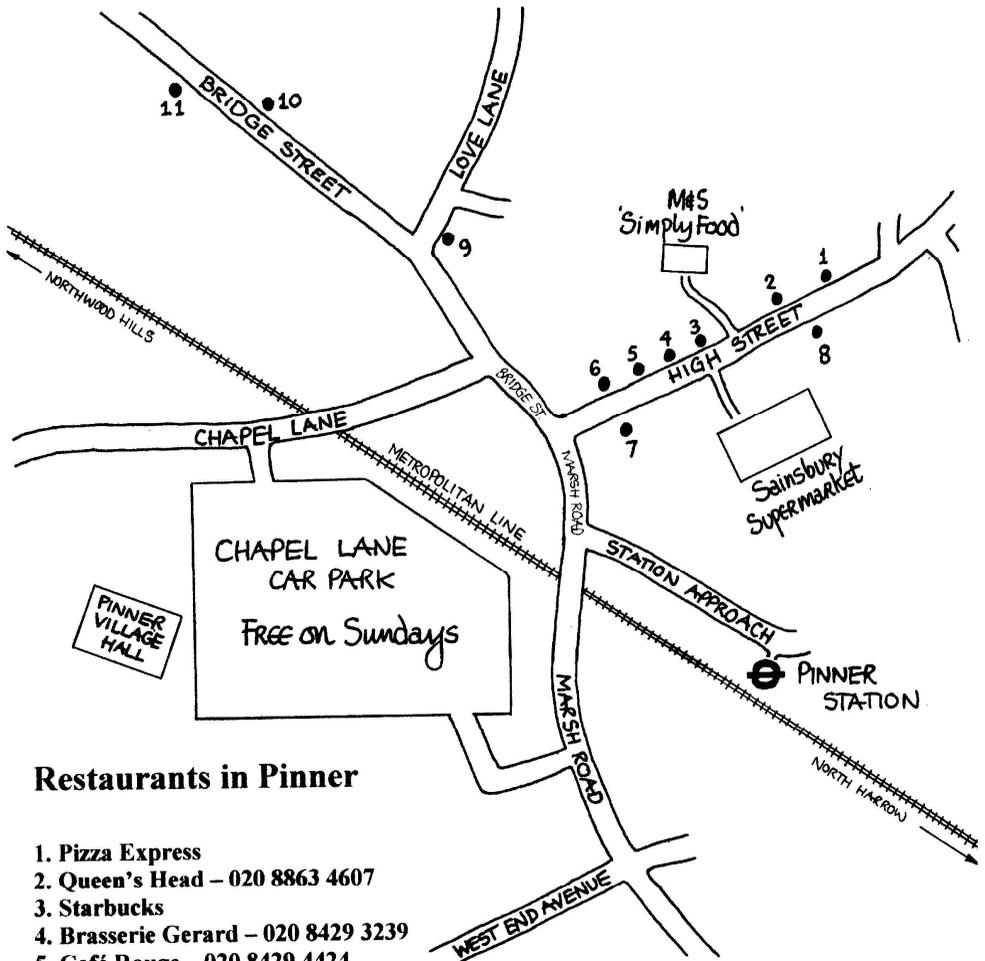

The date for this annual event will be Sunday, 22nd November 2009, with doors opening at 10 am for a 10.30 am start, and finishing at about 5 pm.

Tickets at the door will cost £8, which will include morning tea / coffee and afternoon refreshments. However, tickets purchased through your clubs will be priced at £7 provided five or more are sold, and at £ 6 for sales of ten or more.

As the address implies, the hall is situated on the edge of a large public car park, which is free of charge on Sundays. It is also within very easy walking distance (3 mins) of Pinner Tube station on the Metropolitan Line, but beware of occasional Sunday maintenance work.

You will need to make your own arrangements for lunch, but as you will see from the map on the opposite page, there are plenty of places to eat.

Put the date in your diary NOW, and get your videos ready for entering the regional competition. We look forward to seeing you there in large numbers, members, families and friends. Let's make it a festival to remember !

Restaurants in Pinner

1. Pizza Express
2. Queen's Head – 020 8863 4607
3. Starbucks
4. Brasserie Gerard – 020 8429 3239
5. Café Rouge – 020 8429 4424
6. Friends (very expensive!)
7. Victory – 020 88676 5857
8. Prezzo – 020 8966 9916
9. Café Nero
10. Nova Era café
11. Bella Café

Walking from the Pinner Village Hall to restaurant no.1 takes about 4mins.
 It will be essential to book at the restaurants as they are very popular at Sunday lunchtime.

One Minute Competition 2009

Christine Collins faci.

This is my first year as 'administrator' of the One Minute Competition which has been so successfully run over the past years by Jim Tumbridge.

Results as follows:

WINNER: "I am Lightning" by Laurie, Jon & Laurie Jnr. Calvert
The 1st Runner Up: "If" by Daphne Brown
The 2nd Runner Up: "Final Curtain" by Margaret Stedman

Margaret Stedman had 2 more films in: 'Baby on Board' & 'Just a Minute' and Derek Lucas entered 'Bubbles in my Beer'.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL ENTRANTS!

The films were judged this year by Graham Smart ARPS, who was my boss for many years at Gateway Film & Video Productions and is an accomplished cameraman, director and editor and I thank him very much for his debut into judging for us.

All three top films will be shown and awards given at North Thames Festival and AGM in November. I hope that this will encourage people to make and enter more films. With this in mind I would like to quote from two 'thank you' e-mails I received:

From Laurie Calvert:

"Your letter dropped through the front door this morning to say our little movie 'I am Lightning' was the winner for the one minute competition.....

The boys were really happy when I read the letter to them. It cheered Laurie up because he is having an operation today. So for a few moments he totally forgot about that. Jon was beaming because his dear little pet tortoise was involved. I haven't seen Jon that pleased for a little while, so I know he was proud. He's gone to school to tell them today, and in the past they have shown his films, so it may even inspire others. I've been keeping the boys interested in film making, without pushing it down their throats but to win something like this really spurs them on. So thank you.

I was planning to attend this November anyway but now the kids have also asked about coming too. So that is great. You see that is why the IAC festivals and competitions are inspiring. Now the kids want to make something else!.....Film making is a wonderful hobby."

From Margaret Stedman:

"Many thanks for the return of my entries & the accompanying Judge's comments, along with the good news! It will probably encourage me to put an entry for the main competition at NTR Festival in November."

Well done to all...Now come along everyone....GET FILM MAKING!

"North Thames Region IAC 100 Club"

This prize winning Club is open to all aged 16 Years or over. Entry costs £12.00 a year, representing an entry of £1.00 in each of the twelve monthly draws. After deduction of expenses, the sum available is divided, half going to the North Thames Region IAC funds and half being distributed as prizes. The available prize money is awarded as follows – 50% as first prize, 33% as second prize, and 17% as third prize

All prize winners will be notified by post. The North Thames Council will adjudicate any disputes and their decision will be final.

MUMBLINGS FROM YOUR MEMBERSHIP OFFICER PENNY LOVE

Many thanks to club and society contacts for replying so speedily to my letter about the information I hold for them. Its amazing how clubs forget to notify the IAC office about things like a change of name, meeting times or addresses. I depend on the IAC office to keep me up to date. It is important that I have the correct information because when I get notification of new members joining the IAC, I send them a 'welcome' letter and give them the contact information of their nearest club in case they are not already a member.

I can only give them what I have so if that is wrong, not only does it give a bad impression to the new member, but you could also miss out on having another member join your ranks of excellent film makers.

There are several clubs and societies who are not shown in the Club directory at the back of our North Thames newsletter. Their choice of course but if any of you change your mind then just let Eric Granshaw or me know and we can add you to the list.
